SUPPLEMENT TO THE NOTICE OF THE GENERAL MEETING

In accordance with the provisions of section 172 and related provisions of the Spanish Companies Act, shareholders who represent at least 5% of the share capital may request that a supplement to the present notice of the General Meeting be published, including one or more items on the agenda.

These rights must be exercised by sending an official notification that must be received at the Company's registered address (Titán 13, Madrid, Postcode 28045), for the attention of the Secretary of the Board of Directors, within five days following the publication of this meeting notice.

RIGHT OF ATTENDANCE AND VOTE

According to the provisions of article 16 of the Articles of Association, the shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting are those who own at least 150 shares and have had them registered, in the case of class B and class D shares, in the corresponding accounting register, and, in the case of class C shares, in the registry book of registered shares, no later than five days prior to the scheduled date of the Meeting in both cases.

Attendance cards will be issued, for the owners of class B and class D shares, by the relevant entity pertaining to the Securities Registry, Clearing and Settlement Institution (Sociedad de Gestion de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensacion y Liquidacion de Valores) in each case, and, for the owners of class C shares, by the Secretary's Office of the Board of Directors of the Company, up to forty-eight hours before the General Meeting is held.

Shareholders who own fewer than 150 shares may form a group with one or more other shareholders in order to obtain at least that number of shares, but the shareholders thus grouped together must appoint one of them only to attend the General Meeting and exercise the voting right.

Pursuant to the provisions of article 7 of the Articles of Association, shareholders who own class B shares are not entitled to vote.

Furthermore, with regard to the possibility of participating at the meeting through an early vote by remote means of communication, holders of Class C and D shares with a right to vote may submit their vote for the proposals relating to the items on the agenda before the General Meeting through remote means of communication, provided that the identity of the person submitting his/her vote is duly ascertained.

For such purposes, the holders of Class C shares must fill in the attendance card issued by the Secretary's Office of the Board of Directors of the Company, and the holders of Class D shares must fill in the attendance card issued by the relevant entity pertaining to the Securities Registry, Clearing and Settlement Institution (Sociedad de Gestion de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensacion y Liquidacion de Valores) in each case. In both cases, it must be submitted in a communication addressed by the shareholder to the Secretary's Office of the Board of Directors or by sending an email to secretariaconsejo@grupoclh.com, which must be received at the registered office at least two days before the date of the Meeting at first call.

In view of the current health situation deriving from the SARS-CoV-2 virus and in the light of the uncertainty this has generated, ALL SHAREHOLDERS ENTITLED TO VOTE ARE ENCOURAGED TO PARTICIPATE AT THE GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING REMOTELY, THAT IS, BY EXERCISING THEIR PROXY AND VOTING RIGHTS REMOTELY, with the aim of safeguarding shareholders' health.

RIGHT OF PROXY

In accordance with the provisions of article 17 of the Articles of Association, any individual shareholder who has the right to attend may appoint a proxy to represent them at the General Meeting even though that person is not a shareholder. Corporate shareholders may attend the Meeting through any individual or individuals, whether shareholders or otherwise, who hold legal or voluntary representation status. Voluntary representation of a shareholder shall be granted in writing specifically for each General Meeting, and the form containing the legal requirements, which is printed for this purpose on the attendance card issued by the Company or by the Entities authorised to do so by law, may be used, without prejudice to the provisions of sections 186, 187 and related sections of the Spanish Companies Act.

Conferral of representation status must be sent in writing by the shareholder or their representative to the Secretary's Office of the Board of Directors or by email to secretariaconsejo@grupoclh.com, and must be received at the registered address of the Company at least two days prior to the date set for holding the Meeting at first call, accompanied by a document that provides evidence of representation status and the attendance card of the represented shareholder in order for such representation to be official and for its adequacy to be assessed.

The representative may hold a proxy from more than one shareholder without limitation as to the number of shareholders so represented, and may cast votes for a certain shareholder differently from votes cast for another shareholder, according to the instructions received from each one.
